

BUILDING CHAMPIONS™
COACHING BUSINESS AND LIFE | ON PURPOSE

Sales Mastery 2007 The Duncan Group

Ingo is the man! I think that we have all attended corporate events that included a trainer in tights that delivers an anemic attempt to get attendees "physical". At best, these are half-hearted attempts met with partial audience involvement and limited success.

Enter Ingo. From the moment he walks on stage, he owns it, and the audience. His mixture of energy, humor, education (and UNIQUE education - "Lion Face" - what a blast!) and genuine caring for the audience is engaging, fun and addictive. I actually found myself looking forward to these breaks!

Looking forward to working together again!
